Description

The information in the abstract is translated from the archaeological report:
A archaeological survey was performed during autumn 2005 within a local planning area in the outskirts of Ljungsbro. No finds or features of archaeological interest were found.

Purpose:

The information in the purpose is translated from the archaeological report:
The aim of the survey was to investigate whether the development area contained any archaeological remains. If so, areas with no archaeological remains are to be presented for the developer.

The ZIP file consist of GIS files and an Access database with information about the excavations, findings and other metadata about the archaeological survey.
