

Appendix S1: Elicitation for the Corpus in Swedish Sign Language as a second language STSC-L2

The interview aims to collect conversational/interactional data from the learner, and following a longitudinal design, the questions become more complex with time, following the learners' expected linguistic levels, according to the scales of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Onset T1 Questions

Hello, what is your name?

Where do you live?

Are you from Stockholm?

What do you do/what do you work with?

What are your interests?

Why are you studying sign language?

How did you get in contact with sign language for the first time?

Do you know anybody who is deaf?

Onset T2 Questions

Hello, what is your name?

Where do you live?

Are you from Stockholm?

What do you do/what do you work with?

What are your interests?

Why are you studying sign language?

How did you get in contact with sign language for the first time?

Do you know anybody who is deaf?

How has the semester been so far?

Do you feel that your sign language has been improved?

What is your dream job?

What is the greatest you have experienced in your life?

What are you usually doing during your leisure time?

Onset T3 Questions

Hello! Who are you? Could you tell me a little about yourself? What is your name and what are you doing?

How has the semester been so far?

Do you feel that your sign language has been improved?

What are you usually doing during your leisure time?

What are you doing this summer?

Today, there are a lot of discussions regarding the climate change. What do you think? How can it be better?

The housing situation in Stockholm is tough today. How have you solved your housing situation?

Follow-up question: What would you like to tell the politicians? How to solve this and what to do in order to make it better?

Onset T4 Questions

How has the semester been so far?

Do you feel that your sign language has been improved?

How has the semester been so far?

Do you feel that your sign language has been improved?

What are you usually doing during your leisure time?

What are you doing this Christmas?

Today, there are a lot of discussions regarding the climate change. What do you think? How can it be better?

The housing situation in Stockholm is tough today. How have you solved your housing situation?

Follow-up question: What would you like to change Stockholm as a politician? How to solve this and what to do in order to make it better?